Cabinet Reports

President: We're getting the details of the Medieval Times trip down. We want to get together with the freshmen to go over Roberts Rules of Order and the general flow of a meeting with Wharton.

Vice President: Make sure to get to meetings on time, the sooner we get the meetings started to better.

Treasurer: The SAF is currently $55,677.35.

Secretary: Freshmen elections are ending on Tuesday night, so we will have 6 new senators next Sunday. We ended up getting 12 candidates by the end of the nominations period, so its going to be a tough race.

CCSI: No Report

Committee Reports

Academic Affairs: We met with the provost, and he is going to make 3 important announcements during his address to the student body.

Campus Life: We had a meeting with Barbara Aris, the manager of the post office, about getting extended hours for co-op students or weekend hours. She said it wasn't a problem and they will work on it. I also talked to Tony Blazini about getting ashtrays for the campus; he said he will be ordering them this week.

Public Relations: We had a meeting with Dean Nilsen, we will be sending out the campus wide survey in about 2 ½ weeks.

Constitution and By-laws: We had a meeting with Ken about funding procedures and what we would like to see happen with them. This issue will be discussed at the end of the meeting.
