

Up to Charge

A conductor is charged by repeated contacts with a metal plate which, after each contact, is recharged to a quantity of charge  $Q$ . If  $q$  is the charge of the conductor after the first operation, what is the ultimate charge on the conductor?