

Welcome to the Class of 2012. All members of the Stevens community abide by the Honor System, which has been in place for almost 100 years. We ask that you read the following explanation of the Honor System, then sign the Honor System pledge and confirm the information at the bottom of the page is correct. Return it to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at your earliest convenience.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Stevens Honor System is intended to create an atmosphere that encourages the pursuit of intellectual and ethical enlightenment, develops a sense of community, cultivates respect for the rights of individuals in the community, and develops graduates with character. In order for this Honor System to be effective, it depends on the continued support and cooperation of the student body, faculty, and administration. In addition, the Honor System's governing body, the Honor Board, serves to ensure that the integrity of the system is upheld.

Enrollment into the undergraduate class of Stevens Institute of Technology signifies a student's commitment to the Honor System. It is the responsibility of each student to become acquainted with and to uphold the ideals set forth in the Honor System Constitution. Specific student responsibilities include:

- Maintaining honesty and fair play in all aspects of academic life at Stevens.
- Writing and signing the pledge, in full, on all submitted academic work.
- Reporting any suspected violations to an Honor Board member or to the Dean or Associate Dean of Undergraduate Academics.
- Cooperating with the Honor Board during investigations and hearings.
