INTERNATIONAL PHOTO CONTEST
Reveal your inner shutterbug and share your talents with the Stevens community! We will be hosting a photo contest throughout the month of November showcasing moments and places explored by Stevens’ students, faculty, and staff both here and abroad. Entries will be accepted through Nov. 14th. Winners will be announced and photographs will be displayed at the International Coffee House event that will be held on Nov. 16th. The winning photos will receive prizes.
November 2nd - November 16th

INTERNATIONAL EXPRESSION AT THE SAMUEL C. WILLIAMS LIBRARY
Throughout the month of November, learn how to greet your fellow students in their own language and participate in our internationally themed Questions of the Week!
November 2nd and November 30th
Great Hall, Samuel C. Williams Library

PAELLA NIGHT
Spain’s culinary delicacies are sought out worldwide, the paella sitting among the cream of the crop. If ever traversing the Iberian Peninsula, the paella is a must-try for a true Spanish experience. Spain comes to Stevens with a sampling of paella and discourse on its importance, ubiquity, and history. Come earlier and watch a paella made from scratch!
Tuesday, November 3rd
7:00 – 8:00 PM, Huyden Hall Kitchen
8:00 – 10:00 PM, Skyline Room, 4th Floor, Howe Center

CONVERSATION BEYOND BORDERS
Converse with students, scholars, and staff from around the world about a wide variety of topics, including pop culture, history, literature, media, psychology, and science! This is a fun and casual group that encourages Stevens’ students to learn about each other’s countries, cultures, and points of view, and can help students improve their English. All Stevens students are welcome!
November 4th and November 20th
Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays in November
2:00 - 5:00 PM, Room 110, 1st Floor, Babbage Center
3:00 - 6:00 PM, Room 202, 2nd Floor, Babbage Center
3:00 - 5:00 PM, Room 216, 2nd Floor, Peirce Hall

INTERNATIONAL MASKerado CABARET NIGHT
A celebration of international music, dance, and food with performances by Stevens international graduate students. Come join the fun—mask optional!
Saturday, November 7th
7:00 - 11:00 PM, Blasingame Room, 4th Floor, Howe Center

EXPLORE THE WORLD: STUDY ABROAD INFO SESSION
Come to find out how you can study abroad and earn credits that will fulfill your degree requirements at Stevens. Our special guest will be Academic Programs International (API) which has programs in Europe, Asia, Latin America and the South Pacific.
Wednesday, November 11th
1:00 - 2:00 PM, Room 230, 2nd Floor, Edwin A. Stevens Building

LESSONS FROM ABROAD: STUDY ABROAD RETURNEE PANEL
Meet Stevens’ Global Ambassadors and other students who studied or served abroad in Japan, Spain, Sweden, Australia, Cyprus, and elsewhere in the world. International refreshments will be served and you can get your very own International Duck!
Wednesday, November 11th
9:00 - 10:00 PM, Room 122 (Auditorium), First Floor, Babbage Center

LATIN AMERICAN ASSOCIATION’S KAFE INTERNACIONAL
Stop by, enjoy coffee and pastries while you practice speaking Spanish with the Latin American Association. Tables will be set based on skill level, so all are welcome! Spanish-speaking activities will be led by Stevens’ very own, Professor Balog.
Tuesday, November 17th
8:00 - 10:00 PM, Jacobus Lounge, Jacobus Student Center

INTERNATIONAL COFFEE HOUSE
Bring your favorite instrument, recite your favorite poem or sing a song from your culture, it’s Open Mic at America’s Cup in the Samuel C. Williams Library.
Wednesday, November 18th
4:00 - 5:00 PM, America’s Cup, Samuel C. Williams Library

ETHNIC STUDENT COUNCIL THANKSGIVING
Join the Ethnic Student Council for their annual Thanksgiving dinner representing the cultures at Stevens. (Undergraduate only.)
Thursday, November 19th
9:00 - 11:00 PM, Blasingame Room, 4th Floor, Howe Center

DIWALI NIGHT PRESENTED BY THE INDIAN UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATION
Diwali is called the Festival of Lights in India and it’s celebrated extravagantly all over the country. Join the IUA for a night of celebration with a full Indian dinner and Bollywood dance performances. All undergraduates are admitted free; graduate and others guests will be charged $5 fee at the door.
Friday, November 20th
7:00 PM - 12:00 AM, Walker Gymnasium

IE Month Committee: English Language Communications, Foreign Languages from the College of Arts and Letters, International Student and Scholar Services Office (ISSS), Office of Graduate Student Affairs and Samuel C. Williams Library