

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARDS

STEVENS PRIDE AWARD - Awarded to student(s) who have demonstrated a positive attitude, acts of loyalty to the university, creative and inclusive expressions of school pride, putting sportsmanship and concern for others first. They exemplify what it means to be part of the Stevens community (a true duck).

2017 Winners: Katie Brown, Richard MacIlraith

RISING LEADER AWARD - Awarded to an undergraduate student considered an emerging leader who has attended Stevens for less than two years and exemplifies a dedicated involvement and commitment to enhancing campus life.

2017 Winners: Sam Sherman, Parker Petroff-Rims, Lucas Gallo

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AWARD - Awarded to an undergraduate student who has shown commendable commitment to volunteerism and civic engagement. These students are dedicated to sharing their time, resources, and expertise, with the goal of community success and improvement at Stevens, in the greater Hoboken community, and beyond.

2017 Winners: Penelope Halkiadakis, Anthony Rusignuolo

SOCIAL JUSTICE ADVOCATE - Awarded an undergraduate student who has demonstrated leadership for diversity. The student has incorporated equity and inclusion into their leadership roles and/or community and has worked to make our world a better place by promoting a just society, challenging injustice, and valuing diversity.

2017 Winners: Soindos Abdah, Dhivya Shankar

WOMAN OF DISTINCTION AWARD - Awarded to an undergraduate woman who distinguishes herself by positively impacting the experience of women at Stevens. She is actively involved in many facets of the Stevens community and upholds herself to exemplary standards. This woman embodies the characteristics of the Stevens women - past, present, and future - and is a well-rounded leader and innovator, whose contributions are continuing the legacy of women at Stevens.

2017 Winners: Janelle Welkie, Jessica Smith

STUDENT LEADER OF THE YEAR - Awarded to an undergraduate student who has shown outstanding leadership and vision and has given unstintingly to the Stevens community through significant involvement in campus life.

2017 Winners: Greg Klesaris

DEPARTMENT AWARDS

Resident Assistant of the Year - The Resident Assistant of the year award is presented to the staff member that has demonstrated exceptional characteristics in leadership, daily administration, advising, programming, counseling, and adhering to policy. This is an individual that has gone above and beyond the basic requirements and has excelled at every aspect pertaining to the Resident Assistant Position.

2017 Winner: Dominic LoVasco

Career Center Volunteer of the Year - This award is presented to an undergraduate student who has shown outstanding commitment and dedication to volunteering for Career Center activities throughout the 2016-2017 Academic Year. This year's recipient has gone above and beyond to support the Career Center staff.

2017 Winner: Raul Letonia

Linda Volkemmer Award

The award is given annually to undergraduate students who have had the most influence on advancing theater at Stevens Institute of Technology and the DeBaun Performing Arts Center. Established by DeBaun's 10th Anniversary Committee, the award is named after Linda Vollkommer, who has been influential in advancing student involvement in the performing arts at Stevens for decades, and in the renovation of DeBaun Auditorium.

2017 Winner: Elizabeth Hromada

Peer Educator of the Year

The Peer Educator of the year award is given to a member of the Peer team who has a passion for mental health education and a commitment to raising awareness within the Stevens community. This individual has also gone beyond the call to expand the Peer program and enable PEP to grow and become a strong resource to the Stevens Students.

2017 Winner: Kristin Allocco

Spirit of STEP (Stevens Technical Enrichment Program) Award - This award recognizes a currently enrolled STEP student who best exemplifies the values, traditions, and spirit of the program – community, integrity, determination, achievement, and leadership. The awardee must be active within the Stevens community, represent STEP in a positive light, and continually contribute to advancing the mission and values of the program. The recipient must be in good academic standing demonstrated by a cumulative GPA of 2.5

2017 Winner: Mike Salaas

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AWARDS

New Organization of the Year - Honors an organization newly registered within the past 12 months that is dedicated to student life. This organization takes initiative to make itself visible on campus, has grown in membership since its recognition, and shows potential for continued growth and success.

2017 Winner: Transfer Student Association

Organization of the Year - This award is presented to a recognized student organization that has shown outstanding commitment to the organization's goals, has made a lasting impact on the Stevens community, and has excelled in program planning, financial management and leadership development of members.

2017 Winner: Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATION PROGRAM AWARDS

Program of the Year - This award will be given to an innovative student program or event that appealed to a wide audience, was well-planned, organized, and executed, and made a significant impact on the Stevens community.

Advocacy- Recognizes a program that has increased awareness on a specific social issue on a local, national, or global scale and resulted in an action based response.

2017 Winner: Omega Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. for the Week of Illumination

Educational Impact- Awarded to a creative program that promotes greater awareness of an existing academic, political, or social issue through educational efforts to enhance student learning and provide meaningful exchange of ideas.

2017 Winner: Sigma Phi Epsilon's Consent 101

Service- Awarded to a community service program or project that has helped others in the community and provided enrichment through active service and service learning.

2017 Winner: StevensTHON, for Dance Marathon

Community Impact – Awarded to a program that has contributed to the campus community at community at large.

2017 Winner: Castle Point Anime Convention

GREEK AWARD LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Individual Greek Awards:

Greek Leaders of Distinction - This award serves to recognize outstanding overall leaders within the Stevens Fraternity and Sorority community, who may not have other opportunities for recognition. They demonstrate a high level of involvement in various areas of the Stevens Greek Community and offers a high quality of leadership in the positions that this person holds, both inside and outside of Greek Life.

2017 Winners: Marianna Fleming (Phi Sigma Sigma), Marissa Pickell (Delta Phi Epsilon)

Sorority Member of the Year - This woman serves as an outstanding leader on campus and serves as a role model to other women on campus. She practices the four (4) pillars (community engagement, leadership, sisterhood, and scholarship) of the Stevens Fraternity and Sorority community as well as those of her individual chapter. She strives to improve the Greek community through her unparalleled dedication through leadership roles and other contributions and has shown support towards other chapters on campus, not just her own.

2017 Winner: Melanie Vicino (Sigma Delta Tau)

Fraternity Member of the Year - This member serves as an outstanding male leader on campus and serves as a role model to other men on campus. He practices the four (4) pillars (community engagement, leadership, sisterhood, and scholarship) of the Stevens Fraternity and Sorority community as well as those of his individual chapter. He strives to improve the Greek community through his unparalleled dedication through leadership roles and other contributions and has shown support towards other chapters on campus, not just his own.

2017 Winner: William Harris (Sigma Phi Epsilon)

New Member of the Year - This student must have been initiated/crossed during the 2016 calendar year. They show immediate dedication to the Stevens Fraternity and Sorority Community values and their own chapter values. This new member began contributing to organization and the Fraternity and Sorority community in the short time in which they were initiated/crossed (holding positions, participation, etc). They show future dedication and positive impact towards their organization and the Fraternity and Sorority community. Please indicated the semester this individual joined in the written qualifications.

2017 Winners: Drew Lustig (Phi Sigma Sigma), Jacob Schozer (Jacob Schozer)

Senior Legacy Award - This individual must be a senior by credit standing and have completed their degree requirements by Spring 2017. They have shown contribution throughout their time as a member within their respective organization by holding leadership positions and being an active member, especially during their senior year. They have served as a mentor to younger members of the chapter during their final semester at Stevens. This senior has remained an active presence within the organization and at campus events.

2017 Winner: Angelo Popper (Sigma Phi Epsilon)

President of the Year - This person serves as a role model to other by being committed, compassionate, and a respected leader within their own organization. They must demonstrate ability to understand and cooperate with others and the ability to work with leadership styles that may differ from their own successfully. They maintain ideas of enhancing his or her organization as well as overall Fraternity and Sorority life. There is an obvious commitment to service and works tirelessly to balance other obligations with leadership responsibilities within their own organization. This President lives the values and mission of their own organization in their daily life.

2017 Winner: Ryan Bertani (Lambda Upsilon Lambda Fraternity, Inc.)

Greek Advisor Awards:

Campus Advisor - This person is dedicated to promoting the Stevens community values and helps to develop leaders within the chapter. They promote and role models ethical leadership and healthy chapter membership. They assist with advising on campus policy and procedure and is present at any meetings/events that they are able to attend.

2017 Winner: Dr. Donald Lombardi (Delta Tau Delta Chapter Advisor)

Alumni Advisor - This person is dedicated to promoting the chapter values and developing leaders within the chapter. They assist with the advisement and programming for chapter retreats/conferences and in promoting the values and mission of the national organization. Assists with the advisement and programming for chapter retreats/conferences. They are present at any meetings/events that they are able to attend and assist with connecting to other alumni. Is active with any alumni organization for the chapter on either a local or national level (if applicable).

2017 Winner: Dana Perriello (Phi Sigma Sigma)

CHAPTER GREEK AWARDS

Excellence in Campus Involvement - The chapter has made major contributions to the Stevens community through their campus involvement by supporting programs and events on campus, especially those hosted by other organizations and departments. Additionally, chapter members have active membership in other campus organizations and areas on campus and contribute to these in a positive manner (i.e. Res Life, OL, Athletics). They also seek to develop partnerships with faculty or staff on campus (e.g. guest facilitators, speakers, advisors).

2017 Winner: Phi Sigma Sigma

Excellence in Civic Engagement - This chapter sponsored a combination of philanthropic and community service events. A majority of the membership have participated in several community service and philanthropy events that the chapter hosted. Members displayed the utmost altruistic behavior with raising funds or products to benefit a pre-selected philanthropy/non-profit. Educated the campus community about their chapter's philanthropic efforts during programs or tabling.

2017 Winner: Omega Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Excellence in Risk Reduction - This chapter hosted a program that addresses one of the following areas of risk: hazing, alcohol & drugs, or sexual assault & harassment. The program successfully balances the many risks involved in the day to day functions of running a Fraternity or Sorority. Made a positive impact on those attending the program.

2017 Winner: Sigma Phi Epsilon

Most Improved Chapter - This organization created positive change, not only within their organization but also with the entire Greek community. They work day in and day out not only to boost their organization but also the community at large. They have shown significant improvement within the following areas: recruitment/intake, programming, leadership, academics, service and philanthropy. It is clear that the membership is working hard to elevate the chapter.

2017 Winner: Chi Phi

Chapter of the Year - This chapter has experienced great success this year in all areas of Greek Life including: recruitment, organizational growth and leadership, service, academics, and Brotherhood/Sisterhood. Co-sponsored and/or hosted numerous events ranging in educational, cultural, philanthropic, or social in nature. They demonstrated efforts toward Risk Management: Chapter provides safe living and/or programmatic environments for its members. The chapter has a grade point average above all Greek average. The chapter sends members to local, regional, and national leadership activities/retreats such as those hosted by their National Headquarters and the Stevens Campus. They have an active relationship with Student Life staff and are free of discipline or sanctions by the Office of Student Life.

2017 Winner: Sigma Phi Epsilon

STUDENT GOVERNMENT AWARDS

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING FACULTY - This award is given to the faculty member who has gone above and beyond in the classroom to establish an enriching learning environment.

2017 Winner: Dr. Donald Lombardi

DISTINGUISHED TEACHING ASSISTANT - This award is given to the TA that students benefit from the most and learn from both inside and outside of the classroom.

2017 Winner: Patrick DePaolo

CAMPUS IMPACT - This award is given to a person employed by Stevens, who is not a member of the faculty, who has had a profound positive impact on student life.

2017 Winner: Dr. Sara Klein